

Coming through

Deciderius / Møller

*Let me see your eyes - let me get inside
While we touch the sky
Let me see you smile
Just forget the time
For a little while*

*You don't need no words
No explaining words
No betraying words*

Chorus:

& it's so good to see you coming through & it's so nice just to be here with you

*You don't have to fear
Feel that love is here
Whispering in your ear
You are not insane - you are not to blame
You are just a flame*

Chorus

*You don't have to fear
Feel my love is here
Whispering in your ears
You are not insane - you are not to blame
'Cause you are just a flame*

Chorus

*All you want to do
Is all up to you*
